Senior Class

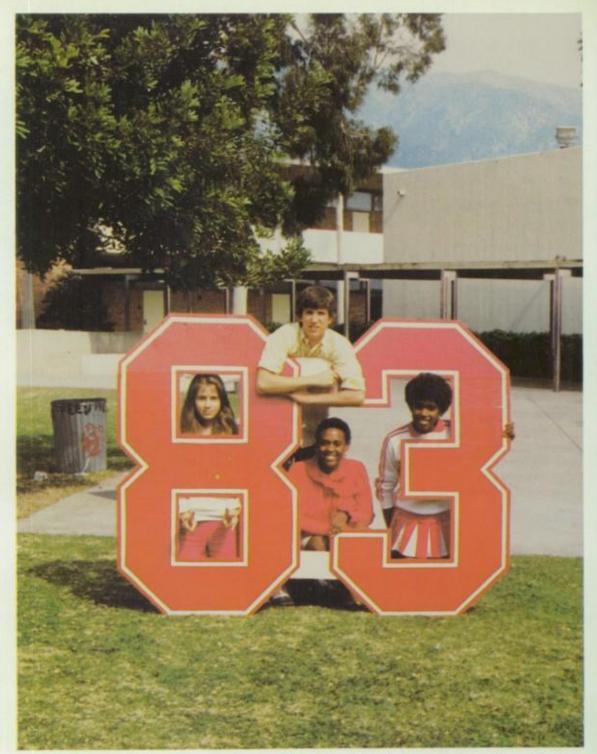

After completing four years at Pasadena High School, the Class of '83's year is at a close. This class has been on a number of rides and attractions which made its year very exciting. Those rides, such as being the only eighth grade school in 1979 at Eliot Junior High, having the honor of having two Rose princesses on the Tournament of Roses Court and having one National Merit Scholar made the years great.

The attraction of Spirit Week started in 1980 when the Class of '83 was the first Freshman Class to ever win first place. This year even though the class was disqualified, it did not deaden the spirit. Other attractions consisted of the Homecoming Dance, where the queen and her court were presented and the annual Turkey Tussle where the undefeated football team trampled the Mustangs.

Various fundraisers and activities were held enabling the class to have its prom at the elegant Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles.

The Class of '83 has great reason to be proud of itself, for the students shared many memories, good ones and bad ones. To the members of the Class of '83, "Goodbye and good luck!"

CLASS PRESIDENTS: Jana Steel, senior year; Peter Blackshaw, junior year; Lisa Ellis, sophomore; JaNein Rhodes, freshman.

ADMIT ONE FALL

Varsity Football Has Great Year

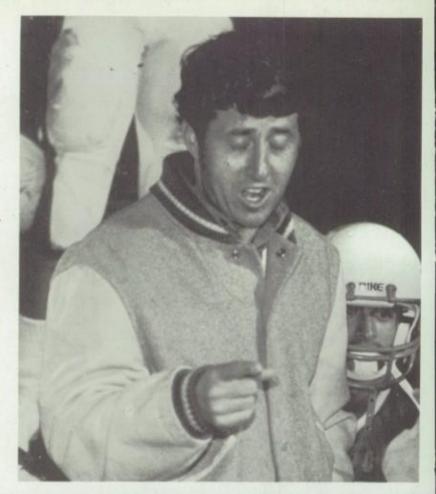

The PHS varsity football team went undefeated during the regular season and clinched the Pacific League title. The devastating defense, led by Bruce Kenoly, Mark Holloway, J. J. Jones, Wesley Stewart and Kevin Henderson, allowed only 50 points in 10 games and accounted for five shutouts. The defense was ranked number one in the league.

The explosive offense, led by quarterback Stacy Harvey and tailback Vaughn Simmons, was also highly ranked. The offense would never have gotten off the ground without the help of the unsung heroes of the game, the offensive linemen, consisting of Frank Hoffman, Lewie Ford, Johann Konrad, Jim Park, Dervon

Dunagan and Edwin Burgos.

Pasadena was one of the seven out of 470 Southern California teams that went undefeated. The Bulldogs have not been 10-0 since 1970.

It took all 48 team members to create such a fabulous team which had great unity and a family-like attitude.

Band Steps with Pride and Spirit

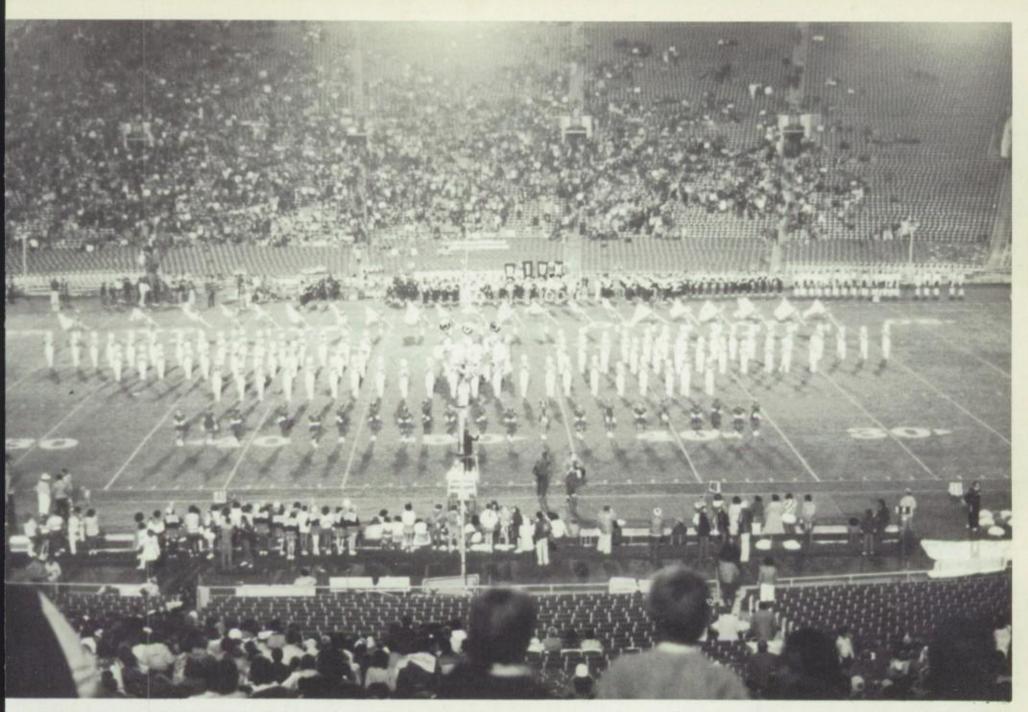

The "Pride of Pasadena" once again marched to cheers and wild applause. Under the direction of James Arnwine, director, and Ryan Turner, drum major, the PHS band sparked excitement at half times of football games and also participated in tournaments and shows, taking the first place trophy at the Western Field Tournament and taking second place at the El Modino Tournament. In addition, the band participated in the Disneyland Parade on December 20.

Royal Court Reigns over Activities

Although the annual Turkey Tussle was held on a Thursday night at the Rose Bowl, the mighty Bulldogs still defeated the Mustangs with a 21-10 victory. Reigning over the activities were (clockwise) Queen Vicky Scott and her escort Loy McBride, Princess Julie DaRe with Charles Crowley, Princess Yolanda Carbajal with Shawn Laribas, Princess Heather Hall with Al Reid, Princess Monique Burton with Mark Yarbrough, and Princess Susan Hofstad with Bart Manning. The Homecoming Dance, where the queen was crowned, was held a week before the Turkey Tussle.

Turkey Tussle

PHS, showing one of its strongest teams in years, ran and passed with ease as the Bulldogs rolled up a 21-10 victory at the Turkey Tussle, retaining the victory bell for the second year.

Muir got off to the early lead, 10-0, but PHS then took control and bewildered

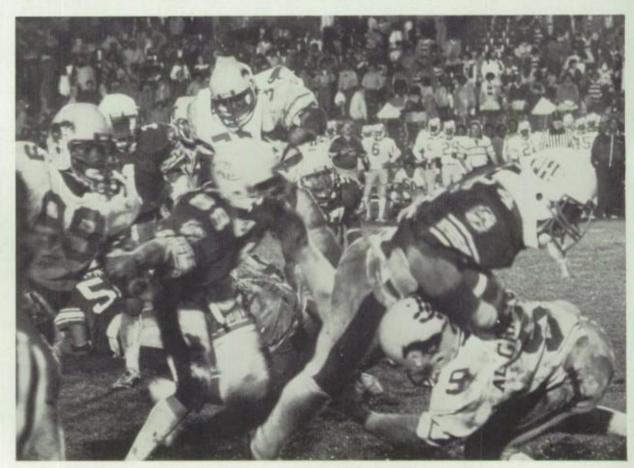

Muir's offense and defense.

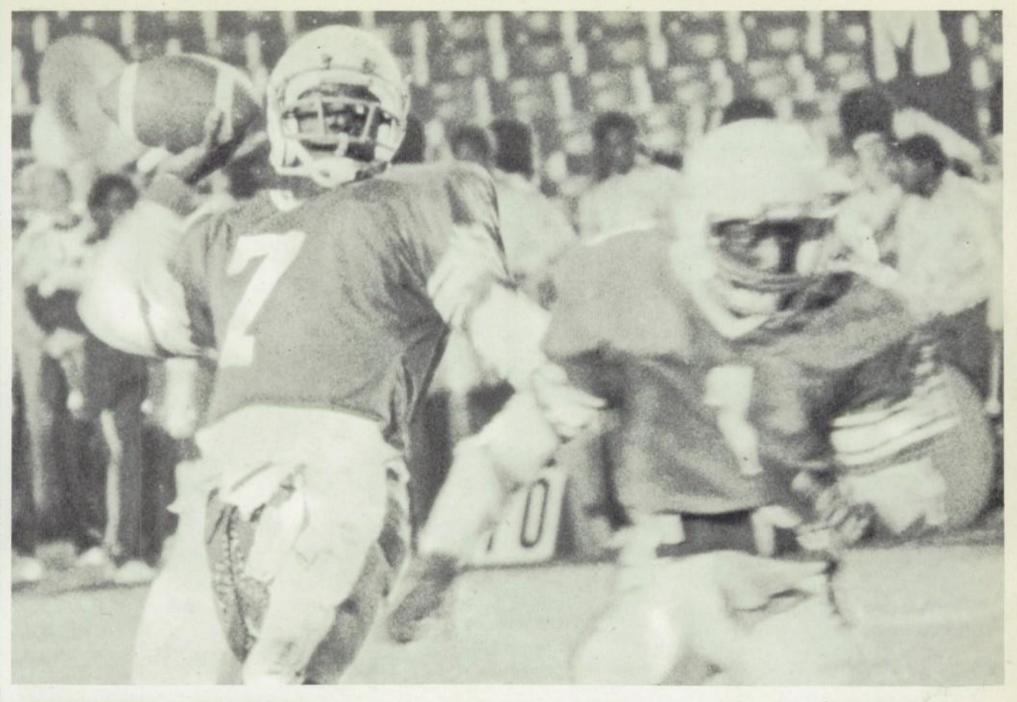

The Bulldog offensive line opened gaping holes that senior tailback Vaughn Simmons easily strolled through. The defense also shut down the high powered Muir offense.

Bullfrogs Stroke On

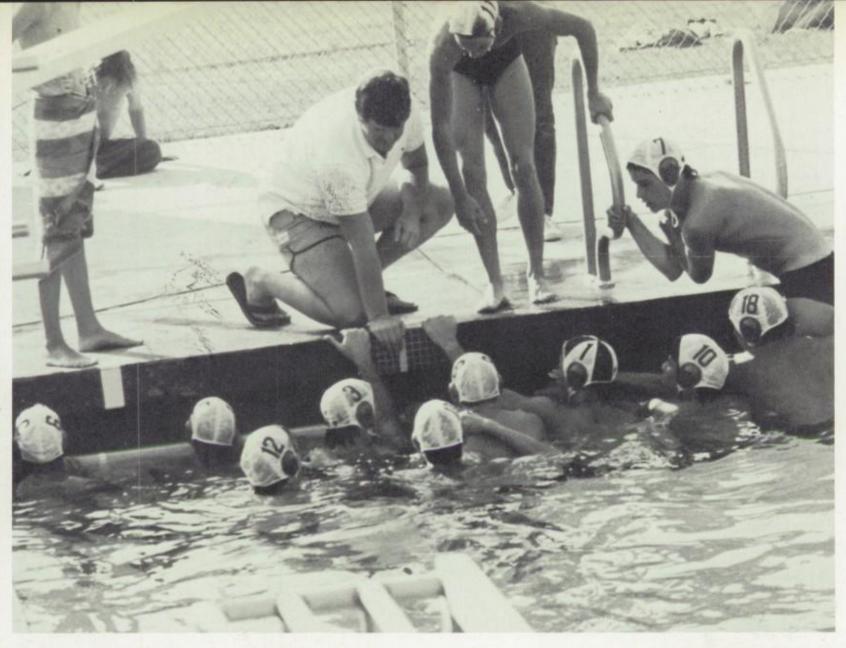

The Pasadena varsity water polo team was quoted as being the best Pasadena team in years. Led by third-year coach Pat Lancaster, the varsity team completed the season with a 6-7 overall record. The improvement of team play and complete player effort resulted in a rewarding year. Top players where captain Phillip Rouse, Erik Petersen, and the two-year varsity goalie Andy Turnage. JV Water Polo Happy With Season

The junior varsity water polo team had an overall rewarding year. Under the direction of coach Pat Lancaster, the JV team had its first league win since 1980.

The agressiveness of team play resulted in wins over Muir, Crescenta Valley and other schools. Top were MVP co-captain Paul Beach, co-captain, Ernie Marchain, Jaun Gonzalez, and the Sakamoto brothers.

Song and Flag Girls Show Spirit All Year

This year's song and flag girls worked diligently to come up with new and exciting routines to various selections played by the band. They spent many hours practicing and perfecting these routines in preparation for the various sporting events and pep rallies at which they performed. Although a few small problems arose during the year (like their uniforms arriving 8 weeks late), they were quickly forgotten. Every one of the girls had a terrific time representing and supporting PHS.

Cheerleaders, Victory Squad Spirited

The 1982-'83 varsity cheerleaders and this year's victory squad worked together in high spirits cheering at athletic events and pep rallies.

The cheerleaders attended the varsity football and basketball games and also performed at the Homecoming and Hello-Goodbye assemblies.

We're in the Army Now

This year the PHS administration decided to crack down harder than ever on student behavior. They ruthlessly enforced the PASS program and cracked down on bad behavior at lunch and before school. Most students disliked the administrations's strict policies a great deal, and one student remarked, "It's just like being in the Army or something, you know?"

Volleyball Enjoys Season

Despite the great setting and serving by varsity netter Karen Cipponeri, and despite the team leadership by junior varsity star Gina Kirkland, the girls' volleyball teams had disappointing, winless seasons.

Teamwork and sportsmanship, however, made the volleyball teams' seasons successful, maybe not in victories, but in something much more important — a sense of having worked hard together for a common goal and a sense of having played with enthusiasm and pride.

Frosh Football Takes League Title

The freshmen football team, with a combination of hard hitting and fine execution had an excellent season. Even though they ended up with an overall record of 6 and 3 they went undefeated in league play, becoming league champions. "The entire squad developed as a team and showed improvement from the first of the season to the end of the season," said head coach Joe Braxton.

Sophomores Victorious in League Campaign

The sophomore football team had a very successful season as they won the Pacific League title while going undefeated in league play. Led by Loy McBride and Stephen Loving, the sophomores exhibited the togetherness and maturity often associated with older teams. Although the team played well all season long, the highlight of the year was the defeat of John Muir, which ended the season.

Tall Flags Stride With Pride

Proving that dedication and group effort pay off, the tall flag squad had a rewarding marching season. After weeks of practicing and drilling on their routines, the squad went into competition. Taking first place at the Western Field Tournament and second at El Madena Field Tournament made their hard work worthwhile. "I'm very proud of the progress the squad has made this year and the unity and friendship we have shared," said Amy Huerta tall flag captain. Working with the squad for his first year was Terry Lewis, adviser.

CIF Victories Lead to Grid Record

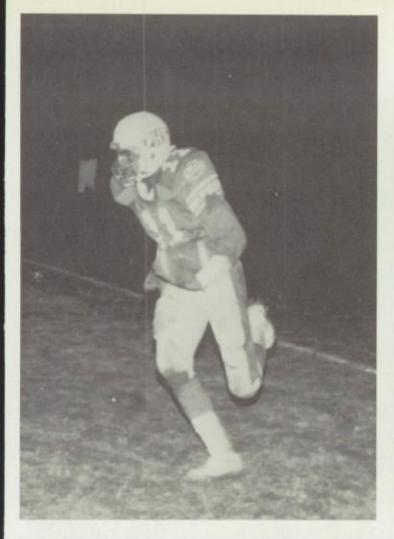

The famed Pasadena football team went to third round CIF play-offs. In addition to this accomplishment, they shattered the PHS history books with a 12-win, no loss record. It wasn't until the third round of the CIF play-offs that the Bulldogs were defeated in a bloody battle which ended in their elimination from the CIF crown drive. With defeat came glory. The Pasadena Bulldogs had accomplished what no previous team had done. The Bulldogs had been in 13 glorious battles and only once had to taste the bitter agony of defeat.

Cross Country Team Has Much Success

The most successful year ever for a PHS cross country team saw its star runner, Jesus Gutierrez (pictured on opposite page), take second place in CIF. Later he was named as the Star News San Gabriel Cross Country Runner of the Year.

The team as a whole came in second in league with a 5-1 league record and a 7-1 record overall. Coach Mark Evans said that he was very proud of this team. "The season was rewarding and although they didn't make it all the way to the league title, it was very close," said the coach.

Drill Team Swings to New Beat

The drill team, under the direction of Molly Bond, put forth a lot of effort to learn new dance routines. They competed in three major competitions and took first place in the Western Field Competition. It was to meet the requirements for these competitions that they had to change to a dance form. The student body reaped the benefits of this change as the drill team performed at football games, pep rallies and basketball games.

Fall Cabinet Leads Many Activities

The ASB Cabinet for the first time sold student body cards with yearbooks. The drive was successful as many more ASB cards were sold than usual. Other successes for the fall Cabinet were the Homecoming Dance and homecoming activities, highlighted, of course, by the Turkey Tussle victory. The usual fall assemblies were presented in addition to a special performance by the PCC musical comedy group. Lunch movies were also featured as well as other noon entertainment.

CSF — Scholarship for Service

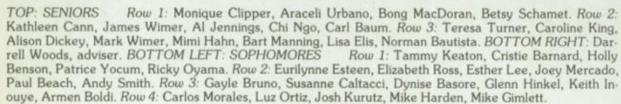

CSF started out the year with a super successful popcorn sale besides being involved in the CSF tutoring program.

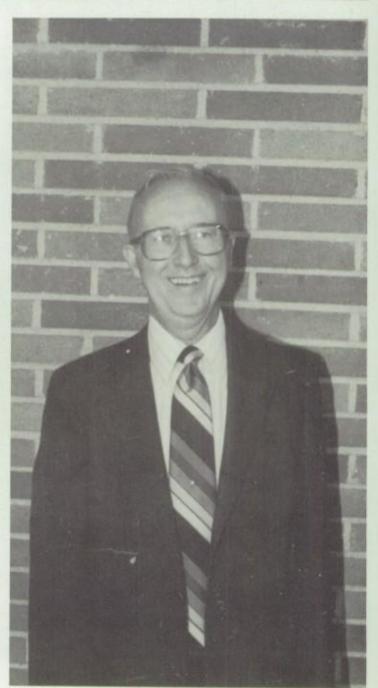

The group also tried something new this year by bringing back the alumni seal-bearers to talk about their experiences in college and about how to get into a good college.

But, it's not all work and no play. They were involved in a trip to Disneyland, which had a pretty big turnout. Scholarships were awarded at the annual banquet, which was the highlight of the year for CSF as usual.

ADMIT ONE WINTER

Varsity Cagers Earn CIF Berth

The varsity basketball team, led by Ivan Harris, leading scorer, leading percentage shooter, and leading free throw shooter; and Kevin Morris, leading rebounder and leading shot blocker, lost to Verbum Dei in the first round of CIF play-offs after having finished second in the Pacific League.

With the help of Stacy Harvey, Marcus Burnes and Tony Brooks, the Bulldogs finished with a 7-3 league record and a 15-10 overall season record. Playing a very tough schedule, the team gave up seven of its 10 losses to top 10 teams.

In the annual games against crosstown rival John Muir, the Bulldogs were defeated in the first game but came back with a strong 54-46 victory over the Mustangs on the Muir home court.

Junior Varsity Dominates, 23-0

Led by Joe Richardson and Robert Lipscomb, the two top rebounders, the junior varsity basketball team won the prestigious Pomona Tournament for the third year in a row and finished the season with a 23-0 record. Other outstanding starters for this well-rounded offensive and defensive club included Brian Biekofsky, Brad Davis and Craig Johnson. The two top players coming off the bench were Robert Palmer and Troy McMickens. The key to the team's success was the devastating defense and the togetherness of the team members.

Clubs Expand Knowledge, Talent

The Creative Writing, Chess, and Cinematography clubs were three clubs which expanded students' creativity, knowledge and talent.

The Creative Writing Club produced the school's literary magazine, Pandora's Box. This included writings and artwork by students in grades 9-12.

Providing a place to play daily at lunch, the Chess Club, advised by Jack Davis, worked to improve strategy and skill.

Cinematography was a club for students who were interested in the film industry. The club, led by Hiedi Soltesz and Al Jennings, attended a lecture from a representative of Paramount Pictures and worked at producing their own films.

Clubs Fly High with Enthusiasm

The Mint Club, Ski Club and Publicity Board were all organized by students. The Mint Club, led by Laurel Oppenheimer, was for those students who enjoyed collecting and trading coins and stamps.

The Ski Club was created for ski lovers. The club's president Bart Manning led the group on its annual ski trip to Mammoth Mountain in April.

The Publicity Board, a service group, was designed for the more spirited student. Publicity Board members painted posters weekly for the football and basketball games. The commissioner for the first semester was Julie DaRe; second semester, Phillip Rouse.

Drama Plays the Part

The main goal for the drama classes, under the guidance of Abel Franco, was to create a good foundation for a mime troup. As part on their class they made masks in the tradition of Marcel Marceau and the Japanese theatre.

The group entered the Southern California Drama Tournament for the first time in a number of years and did well. They also performed two major plays, "Raisin in the Sun" and "The Good Doctor."

Varsity Soccer Kicks into Action

The varsity soccer team did remarkably well, according to coach Ralph Bush, considering they started league in a disappointing 0-4 slump. This year's team was led by captains Rick Martinez, Philip Rouse, and Andy Turnage. Members of the team received numerous awards. Rick Martinez was voted MVP, Armen Tashjian, "Mr. Hustle," Joey Brennen received the Warren Wells Award and special awards went to Philip Rouse.

Apprentice Winter Sports Do Well

Apprentice winter sports teams, soph-frosh soccer, junior varsity soccer and soph-frosh basketball, had outstanding seasons, giving varsity coaches something to smile at.

The soph-frosh soccer team showed promise and a good season with players such as Joel Mundsack and Walter Becker. Under the coaching of Ralph Bush, the team acquired victories over all soph-frosh opponents, their only losses being at the hands of JV teams in scrimmages.

Also under the coaching of Bush, the JV Soccer team won the Pacific League for the first time, beating Arcadia in the last game for the title. Being led by players like Aaron Case, Thomas Gerhke and Peter Don, next year's varsity seems to be bidding for a soccer championship.

Coach Donald Guyton of the soph-frosh basketball team had another great season. Finishing with a record of 18-3, the team was better than expected. They won their own tournament in the championship game against Muir.

Service Clubs Show Support

The Z-Club, Aurora Service File, and Student League, all service clubs on campus, put their work and effort towards helping the school and community.

The Z-Club, headed by president Laura Heinze, had a rewarding year. Not only did they support a girl in Brazil with the profits from their candy sales, but they also volunteered their time over Christmas vacation to work at the kids Space Museum.

The ASF, directed by Julia Alper, sponsored a food and toy drive at Christmas, donating goods to the Salvation Army.

The Student League, led by Amy Ishiguro, had a Halloween message sale and a recycling drive.

The Men's Ensemble sang the national anthem at the Rose Bowl for the Turkey Tussle, performed in the Christmas Feaste and participated in the Southern California Vocal Association.

The Women's Ensemble not only sang for various groups in the area, they also put on a Mother's Day breakfast where they sang for the audience.

Students Work for Credit

Donald Proctor, aided by Rachel Pastre, directed both the work experience and the Regional Occupational Program, which gave approximately 350 PHS students "hands-on training" in different career fields.

In order to receive credit towards

In order to receive credit towards graduation, students were required to complete related class instruction, which included tests on the rights and responsibilities of both the employee and their employers. Although the ROP students generally worked without pay, many were offered paying positions after completing the course.

Orchestra Moves with Strings

The PHS orchestra, under the direction of James Arnwine, has a successful year. Along with performing many concerts in 1982, the group had a pin sale and ended the year performing before parents and friends in the Christmas concert.

They shot into the new year by performing at a retirement home in February and at an orchestra festivel in March.

Some members were also a part of the pit orchestra for the annual spring musical "Camelot."

Among the clubs of the world are the Asian-American Club, International Students Club and the Model UN.

The Asian-American Club is a service organization dedicated to the improvement of the Asian-American community. The club, led by president James Tokorozaki and adviser Mrs. Nancy Hogg, promoted understanding.

The International Students Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Thelma Reyna, adviser, and president Sudha Sagar, had many activities such as candy sales and a dinner with the members bringing food of their native culture.

Organized to study international problems, the Model UN was led by president Damion Desai and adviser Mrs. Perlita Vorster.

Clubs Share Info About Other Cultures

The French, Spanish and German clubs brought their members together in order to share information about a particular culture. Most of the interest was generated through membership in the foreign language classes. The members not only viewed movies concerning the cultures, but also went to authentic ethnic restaurants as they learned more about France, Spain and Germany while enjoying each others company.

Dancers Demonstrate Pizazz

Orchesis, the most select dance group on campus, worked throughout the year on perfection of technique and style. The dancers got experience in performing at various elementary and junior highs in the district. They also attended numerous off campus master workshops, one of which was held at Cal Poly Pomona. In addition, in order to buy club jackets, which the club had never had before, the dancers worked in conjunction with Caltech in the community event "A Weekend at the Circus" selling pop.

Journalists Produce Results

The Chronicle staff, headed by Editor Lewie Ford and four page editors (Mark Wimer, Dante Truitt, Jana Steel and Pete Blackshaw), published 12 editions of the school paper, most of them six pages. Under the guidance of journalism instructor Ann Drury, the staff worked many hours into the night and on weekends writing, re-writing, phototypesetting and pasting up the paper. Some of the staff members also helped Red and White Editor Chuck Rose put out the football program.

Business managers Amy Ishiguro and Johann Konrad made sure the paper was profitable.

Track Team Takes Strong Strides

The boys' varsity track team, coached by Art Large, was led by returning senior Vaughn Simmons and returning junior Jesus Gutierrez.

Large felt that the team put forth a lot of effort and showed spirit throughout their hard practices.

Other standouts were senior Joe Richardson and sophomores Dennis Summers and Cleo Bates.

The team did an excellent job in duo meets and took the league title.

Camelot Scores Great Triumph

Carolyn Shannon and Ned Sutro worked with a cast of many talented students on "Camelot" by Learner and Loewe. "Camelot" is about King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table. Arthur's queen Guenevere falls in love with one of Arthur's loyal knights, a Frenchman named Lancelot. Bart Manning played the good King Arthur, his queen Guenevere was played by the beautiful Trish Phelps, and Matt Agle gave a splendid performance as Lancelot.

The varsity baseball team had a very strong season with returning players Mike Wallace, Robert Calcanas, Tony Osterman and Rob Lipscomb leading the team.

The pitching staff, with a lot of hard work and determination, did an excellent job considering their tough overall competition in the Pacific League. The pitchers included senior Wallace and juniors Bill Stokes, Lee Aguilar, and Michael Guerrero.

Though most of the players were inexperienced in varsity play, they showed a great deal of maturity.

Clubs Struggle to Exist

The Skizzlers, Editors and Jogging clubs struggled in attempts to become official clubs on campus.

The Skizzlers Club, that was full of promising young men and women who followed farm legislation, potato formation and radish culture, was simply given a hard time by faculty members who seemed to lack faith in teenagers' ability to affect farming policies...

The problem facing the Editors Club was trying to find 15 members, a school requirement, when there were only five editors in school.

The joggers had the same basic problem, that of a paucity of members.

Service Clubs Are a Great Asset

The Auroras, Lettermen and Key Clubs showed that they were an asset to the school and the community.

The Auroras kept up their tradition of painting the red and white "P" in the center quad. One of the Aurora's most successful service projects was the blood drive for the Red Cross. Also, in the fight against world hunger the Aurora's hit the pavement in the Walk for Hunger.

The members of the Lettermen Club were in charge of the Red and White for the football team until the Muir addition came out. The Lettermen members also passed out programs at home PHS football games to earn money for their group.

The renovation of the sports marquee was one of the Key Club's first and most evident service activities. One New Year's Day Key Club members were in the school parking lot helping park cars, one of their many fund raising projects. The highlight of the year for the Key Club was the trip to the Key Club District Convention in Sacramento.

Spring Cabinet Strives for Goals

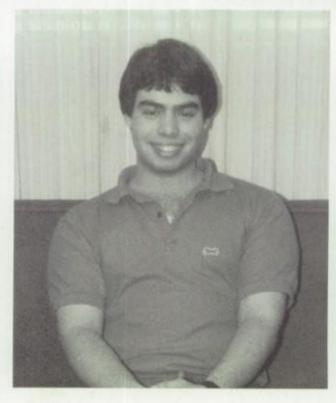

The spring ASB Cabinet, led by ASB president Peter Blackshaw, strove all semester long to meet their goals. These goals were to increase emphasis on interaction between Cabinet members duties and responsibilities and to get the proposed campus/student bookstore planned. With these goals in mind Cabinet worked hard to satisfy the needs of the student body and to help students improve the quality of the school. Some ideas took more planning than others, yet the members planned to leave them behind for all future cabinets to benefit from.

Special Interests Abound at PHS

There were many special interest clubs that thrived on the PHS campus. The Friends of the Library, under the guidance of Ruth Judkins, consisted mainly of students who worked in the library and had a great interest in library practice.

The Dungeons and Dragons Club met on Tuesdays to play and discuss the game of swords and sorcery. Tom Vournas, English Instructor, who reigned over the activities, was very enthusiastic about the clubs growth over the past year.

The Upward Bound students were mainly minority students who, with tutoring and other counseling, had the potential to do well in college. Kathleen Pentecost was in charge of the program, which helped students gain confidence about entering college.

Freshmen

The Freshman Class got off to a slow start this year when freshman president Omar Hopkins (to left in picture) resigned from office. Before Omar resigned, however, he supervised many freshmen when they decorated the campus as part of the Spirit Week activities. Through their hard work, these students showed the true meaning of spirit.

Bobby Meeks (to right in picture) was elected to replace Omar in January. Bobby did his best for the Freshman Class and worked on unity among his classmates. Bobby also planned many fund raisers so the Class of 1986 could look forward to a great prom.

Support Staff Keeps PHS Running

The support staff consists of the people behind the scenes at PHS. They are like the oil of an engine, without which the engine would not run. This staff helps Pasadena High teachers, administrators and students in so many ways, that without these people PHS could not run. They do a great variety of jobs.

Teachers Cure Stress

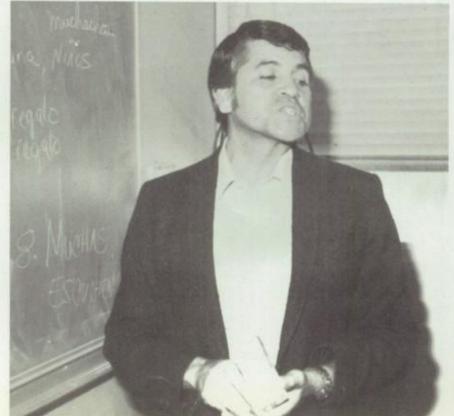

During the past year at Pasadena High School the faculty had many pleasurable moments with the students although there is a point where stress becomes almost intolerable. When this point is reached, teachers have different methods with which they handle the stressful situations.

Yearbook Acts Naturally

Yearbook Slaves On

The yearbook staff has tried it's hardest to capture those times that have made the 1983 year a very special one. Through all the ups and downs and last minute rushes, some very dedicated staff members always came through. I would like to give special thanks to Laura Pelaez, who was always willing to help in a tight spot, and Ann Drury, who was a great help to me when things got rough. I am very proud of the way the staff worked, and hope our efforts have made this yearbook one of the best.
